IMMUNES NOT PROOF

Against the Deadly Malady of Yellow Fever.

SIX CASES IN THE FIFTH.

Chief Surgeon Howard Thinks It Is the Real Article.

A QUARANTINE IS ESTABLISHED.

The Regiment Is Encamped on the Hills Along the Morro Road About Two Miles South of the City of Santiago de Cuba.

Santiago, Cuba, Sept. 9.—Six cases of yellow fever have developed in Colonel Sargent's Fifth Immune regiment.

The cases have been watched closely for several days, and in the opinion of Colonel Harvard, chief surgeon of the military department of Santiago, the diagnosis is unmistakably correct.

The victims have been sent to the yellow fever hospitals and a strict quarantine has been established against the regiment, which is encamped on the hills along the Morro road, about two miles south of the city.

There is a great deal of sickness in this regiment, but in the opinion of the surgeons no more yellow fever.

All the other regiments now doing garrison duty are in fairly good health.

No uneasiness is felt by General Lawton or General Wood. The four members of the Fifth regular infantry who were sent to the yellow fever hospital 10 days ago, when they disembarked from the transport Knickerbocker from Tampa, are doing well.

The battalion is still isolated, but no new cases have developed.

The destitution among the Cubans is still appalling. General Wood issued 52,000 free rations Wednesday. The capacity of the free-supply depots is not great enough to meet the demand, and a new one is to be established shortly.

No Trouble With Aguinaldo.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Administration officials have had no recent reason to feel that a serious condition of affairs was at hand with the insurgents in the Philippines. It will be remembered that Major General Merritt, before starting for Paris, advised the insurgent leader, Aguinaldo, that the authorities of the United States in and about Manila must be respected, and that in the interest of a quiet and orderly administration of affairs it was desirable for the insurgents to vacate the suburbs of the city within a reasonable time. About that time Aguinaldo gave assurances of co-operating with the American forces toward the maintenance of order, and there has been no reason to believe that his adherents would give serious opposition to their removal from the suburbs. The time within which the movement is to be accomplished has not expired, according to the understanding here, and a satisfactory arrangement is expected before the time arrives. In the meantime no reports have come from General Otis, who is acting governor, pending the absence of General Merritt, as to friction with General Aguinaldo over his retirement.

Nothing Lost.

Washington, Sept. 9.—No official information has been received at the war department concerning the reports that the Spaniards are throwing their arms into the harbor at San Juan, Porto Rico, although it would not be unexpected. It is said that until the commission's report or until it comes to some agreement regarding the arms in Porto Rico and in the hands of the Spaniards outside of Santiago in Cuba, the United States has no authority to prevent them. From what the ordnance officers have heard of the Spanish arms they are not very anxious to have them introduced into the United States and will not regret their loss in the harbor.

Instructions to Spaniards.

Havana, Sept. 9.—The Spanish mail steamer Ciudad de Cadiz, which arrived, brought instructions from the Madrid government to the Spanish evacuation commissioners dealing with the details of the evacuation, the questions of fortifications, buildings, mortgages and other properties of the state to be renounced by Spain along with her sovereignty in the island. The joint sessions of the commissioners will be held behind closed doors in the palace of the colonial government.

Shafter Will Visit President.

Washington, Sept. 9.—General Shafter has been ordered to report to Washington and will visit the president and the war department. There is no especial significance in his being ordered to Washington. The president desires to see him and talk about the Santiago campaign.

Death of a Private.

Cleveland, Sept. 9.—Private Burton J. Potter of company F, Fifth Ohio infantry, died of meningitis. He was at home on sick furlough.

Miles at Washington.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Major General Nelson A. Miles, commanding the army of the United States, accompanied by Mrs. Miles and Colonel Mauss and Colonel Michler of his staff, arrived here from New York. General Miles and party came by the Pennsylvania railroad in a private car attached to the regular westbound train. They were met at the Sixth street station by Major Black, a member of General Miles' staff, and Captain Norton, chief clerk in the office of the commanding general. In anticipation of the arrival of General Miles several hundred people had assembled. A cordon of police officers opened a way through the crowd from the wicket gate, through which the distinguished party passed from the platform into the station to the carriage, which stood in waiting at the main entrance.

Conferred With the President.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Three members of the cabinet were with the president shortly after noon, Secretaries Gage, Alger and Postmaster General Emory Smith. Mr. Gage's call related to the treasury appointments. Secretary Alger came to close up many small matters before starting on his western trip. He said he would make a report to the president concerning the practicability of a parade of the returning troops at New York city. The secretary will visit Camp Meade first.

Playing For Delay.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 9.—The Spanish evacuation commissioners seem disposed to delay the meeting of the commissions. They say their instructions have not yet arrived, but are expected on the Alfonso XIII. in the course of a few days. They intimate that, even then, they will need time to study them. The American commissioners have replied that the first meeting must occur before October 12 under the terms of the protocol.

Miles Stays at Home.

Washington, Sept. 9.—General Miles did not leave his home during the evening. It was expected that he would call at the White House, but he said that he had no intention of doing so. He will resume his duties at the headquarters of the army in the war department at once and will avail himself of an early opportunity to pay his respects to the president.

Lawton's Report.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Following is General Lawton's report made to the war department of the health conditions of the American troops at Santiago: "Total sick, 555; total fever, 369; total new cases, 49; total returned to duty, 76; deaths: Corporal George Hinnen, company F, Second infantry, typhoid fever."

An Unsettled Condition.

Madrid, Sept. 9.—Senor Sagasta said: "The nomination of the peace commission is delayed because the commissioners ought to have the full confidence of the government; but who can say who will be in power a month hence?"

Miles Ignored.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Owing to reports that the Miles interviews had been under consideration by the several cabinet officers with the president, it was stated by one of those present that the subject had not come up.

Duty Will Not Be Paid.

Washington, Sept. 9.—It was decided after a conference that the Comal should remain in Havana harbor with her supplies on board and await further developments. The duty will not be paid.

Gone to San Juan.

St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, Sept. 9.—The Cincinnati has gone to San Juan, Porto Rico. On Wednesday night the government permitted her to coal from the American deposits here.

Insurgents Are Restless.

Washington, Sept. 9.—War department officials would not discuss the reports of strained relations between the United States forces at Manila and the insurgent forces under Aguinaldo. The impression seems to be, however, that Aguinaldo is rather restless and has given the United States authorities some uneasiness.

"Talking Back" to an Officer.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—Private J. C. Taylor, company M, First Tennessee regiment, recently tried by a court-martial for conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline, has been found guilty and sentenced to 20 days' hard labor and to forfeit $5 of his pay. The offense committed by Taylor was "talking back" to an officer.

DEATH OF A CANDIDATE

Aspirant For County Treasurer Passes Away.

HE HAD STOMACH TROUBLE.

Well Known Politician Who Has Sought the Votes of the People on Previous Occasions Crosses the Dark River.

Noblesville, Ind., Sept. 9.—Henry Fisher, the Republican nominee for county treasurer, who has been suffering for several weeks with stomach trouble, died at his home near Fisher's station.

He was one of the best known politicians in the county, having made the race for a county office three times. He was 45 years old and leaves a wife and three children. During the civil war he served in the Sixteenth Indiana.

Horsewhipping Case.

Greencastle, Ind., Sept. 9.—Miss Annie Swiney, Otto Rico, Henry Rich and Albert Philey of Roachdale, who figured in the sensational horse-whipping of Columbus Skelton, an old resident of Roachdale in August last, have been arraigned for trial in this city. Miss Swiney practices dentistry at Roachdale. Last August she received an objectionable letter, the writing of which she attributed to Skelton, and, arming herself with a whip, and accompanied by the friends named, she assaulted Skelton.

Arrested For Bigamy.

Corydon, Ind., Sept. 9.—Forty years ago Thomas Bauman of English married Delilah Ott of Harrison county, and he removed to Texas, where he continued to reside with his family until three years ago, when he sold his farm and returned to Indiana. Recently his first wife, who had remained in Texas, heard that after coming back he had married Dora Ray, and she came to this place and filed an affidavit against her husband, alleging bigamy.

Ordered to Lexington.

St. Louis, Sept. 9.—Colonel E. A. Godwin, commanding the Seventh United States volunteers (immunes), has received orders to move his regiment to Lexington, Ky., at the earliest time convenient. The Third United States volunteers have also been ordered to the same place and transportation is being arranged for by Lieutenant Colonel Smith, chief quartermaster here.

Fine Not Remitted.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 9.—John McElroy, after an absence of several years, turned up in the city court and was fined for intoxication. He pleaded for mercy, claiming to have recently been honorably discharged as fireman on the war vessel St. Paul. He produced papers, but the fine was not remitted.

Cheek With Nerve.

Anderson, Ind., Sept. 9.—Thomas Cheek has disappeared and the police are notifying other cities, it being alleged that he organized suit clubs on the weekly installment plan, but while many payments were made, no suits were drawn out.

Much Wheat Afloat.

Connorsville, Ind., Sept. 9.—A large warehouse belonging to F. T. Boots collapsed and 2,000 bushels of wheat poured into the hydraulic canal.

Wound Up the Revolt.

San Francisco, Sept. 9.—The United States steamship Albatross has arrived in port, 12 days from Acapulco. She left here a short time ago bound for Cocos, where Captain Curtis was ordered to protect the interests of American citizens. A few days after the Albatross sailed from here the British gunboat Leander had reached Cocos, and by prompt action her captain not only adjusted the rights of both British and American citizens, but practically wound up the revolution. The Albatross put into Alcapulco for coal, and there found orders to return to San Francisco without delay.

Keystone Republican League.

Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—The Republican State league adjourned at noon after electing the following officers: President, Arch H. Mackrell, Pittsburg; vice presidents, J. Hampton, Moore, Philadelphia; Edward Anderson, Jefferson; John D. Littell, Allegheny; N. H. Culver, Lycoming; John R. ... gins, Philadelphia; E. E. Bobochan, Lackawanna; Henry Zimmerman, Erie; recording secretary, George J. Llewellyn, Luzerne; corresponding secretary, John C. Heary, Allegheny.

Gun cotton was discovered in 1845 by Christian Frederik Schonbein, a German chemist. He also discovered collodion the same year.

A STRONG COMBINATION.

Illinois and Pennsylvania Knock the Grand Army Poles.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—Illinois and Pennsylvania are celebrating their victories at their respective headquarters. The one has secured the commander-in-chief, Colonel James A. Sexton of Chicago, and the other the location of the thirty-third annual encampment of the Grand Army at Philadelphia next year.

While there were all sorts of combinations between the state departments yet it is conceded that the fight between New York and Pennsylvania was the most bitter ever known at encampments. These two neighboring states were competitors for honor, one for the election of Colonel A. D. Shaw of Watertown, N. Y., as commander-in-chief, and the other for the location of the next national encampment at the Quaker City. During all of the votes and discussions of the day at the departments of New York and Pennsylvania were never on the same side of anything.

New York voted to hold the next encampment at Denver and it was only by the diplomacy and shrewd management of the Chicago contingent in the interest of Sexton that Denver lost in the strong contest for the next encampment.

Commander Pugh of Ohio announced that Isaac F. Mack of Ohio had directed him to say that he declined to have his name presented as a candidate, because the senior vice commander was to be chosen from the city where the encampment is held according to the usual custom.

While heated contests were going on inside of the guarded doors of the encampment all the demonstrations of the outside in the city were in accord with the peace jubilee.

The parade of the civic and industrial organizations in the afternoon with all the illustrations of peace and prosperity and happiness that could be produced, was the most magnificent pageant ever witnessed in this city. It is estimated there were 40,000 in line and over 500,000 spectators along the line. There were more people in the city than at any other time of the week or on any other day in the history of the city, and the entertainment could hardly be surpassed.

With the river fronts and the parks and Camp Sherman ablaze with a most elaborate display of fire works, the demonstrations are ended, but special entertainments have been provided for another day in excursions on the river and special displays at the summer resorts.

The delegates state that they will complete their work Friday even if it is necessary for a night session.

THREE RESIGNATIONS.

The Shulers Dispose of Their Interests in Steel Trust.

Cleveland, Sept. 9.—The resignations of three prominent officials of the American Steel and Wire company were announced.

They are those of George H. Shuler general manager of the Cleveland district, with supervision over three mills in this city and one each in Findlay and Salem; E. T. Shuler of Chicago treasurer, and H. B. Shuler of Chicago a director. George H. Shuler said that the resignations had been tendered on August 1 to take effect on October 1.

He denied that the action of himself, his brother and father was influenced by the strike at the company's mills. Their object was to engage in business for themselves, and with that end in view they had disposed of their holdings in the steel and wire company.

Woman's Relief Corps.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—The fourteenth annual convention of the National Women's Relief corps of the Grand Army convened in the Scottish Rite cathedral. The roll call showed a full attendance of delegates representing 140,000 members of the order. National President Mrs. Sarah J. Martin of Missouri delivered her annual address. The report of the national treasurer, Isabella T. Bagley, of Ohio, shows the assets of the organization to be $18,997, and no liabilities.

McKinley In Demand.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Representative Hepburn of Iowa saw the president relative to a stop in Iowa during the coming presidential trip west. The president expressed a desire to visit the state, but said his plans were not yet matured. It is expected that something definite on route, time of start and places of visit will be announced in a day or two.

The largest waves are seen off Cape Horn, rising to 46 feet in height and 756 feet long from crest to crest. Waves in the north Atlantic have been observed to rise 48 feet in height. In the German ocean their height does not exceed 18½ feet, and in the Mediterranean 14½ feet.

THE BASHI BAZOUKS

Are Raising Disturbances on Island of Crete.

CHRISTIANS UNDER ARMS.

The Warships in the Harbor Threaten a Fresh Bombardment, as Several of the Foreign Consulates Have Been Looted.

Athens, Sept. 9.—The following dispatch has been received from Candia: "The bashi bazouks are committing excesses, and the Christians in the surrounding districts are arming to march to the assistance of the Candians. There are eight warships in the harbor and a fresh bombardment is expected."

"The British, German and Spanish consulates have been looted, and thus far 300 native Christians and 67 British subjects have been killed."

To Restore Order.

Athens, Sept. 9.—The Asty says it learns from an authentic source that as soon as the British troops arrived at Candia from Malta the Turkish garrison in Candia will be expelled, martial law proclaimed and the ring-leaders of the riots put on trial and publicly hanged if guilty. According to a dispatch from Candia sent late the admirals of the international fleet have decided to compel the disarming of the bashi bazouks and the surrender of the instigators of the disorder.

Little News From Alaska.

Washington, Sept. 9.—The United States geological survey has received very few advices from the members of the parties investigating the gold and other mineral resources of Alaska, and who have been traversing little known regions in the territory lying outside of the Klondike district since early in April. Letters are frequently received at the office from the friends of the men inquiring as to their whereabouts, health, etc., but little information can be given. This lack of news is not at all surprising, according to Dr. Morrell of the survey office, and is nothing more than was expected. There is no news at all from either Mr. Peters, Mr. Muldrow or Mr. Spurr, and nothing recent from Mr. Barnard, who has with him young Barber, President McKinley's nephew.

Both Flags Raised.

London, Sept. 9.—The stars and stripes were raised with the British union jack and the royal standard on the Marquee erected on Salisbury Plain during the march past of the troops at the end of the army manoeuvres as a compliment to Colonel Alfred H. Bates, the United States military attaché; Henry White, secretary of the United States embassy, and Mrs. White, who went there by a special train with Lord Wolseley, the commander-in-chief of the British forces; Prince Christian, the Duke of Connaught and other notabilities.

May Congratulated.

London, Sept. 9.—A committee of the Anglo-American league headed by its chairman, James Bryce, presented the United States ambassador, Colonel John Hay, with an address congratulating him upon his acceptance of the post of secretary of state at Washington. The address expressed regret at his departure from this country, "where you have discharged the weighty and delicate duties of ambassador with such eminent tact, judgment and courtesy as to win the cordial appreciation and confidence of the British people."

The Editors.

Denver, Sept. 9.—The feature of the session of the annual meeting of the National Editorial association was a "practical talk on newspaper make-up, advertising, composition, headings, job display, etc.," by Mr. Charles S. Patterson of Newspaperdom of New York city. Mr. Patterson used a stereopticon to illustrate his remarks. There are three prominent candidates for the presidency: J. B. McCabe of Boston, C. Y. Gilmore of New Orleans and J. E. Junkin of Sterling, Kas.

Leiter Deal Cleared Up.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Joseph Leiter has cleared up his famous wheat deal. Every creditor has been paid, obligations to banks whose assistance was enlisted, have been cancelled and 14,000,000 bushels of wheat have been liquidated since the announcement of the voluntary assignment near three months ago. This has been done only by great sacrifice, including the giving of mortgages on property belonging to the Leiter estate aggregating nearly $5,500,000 in value.

FOR CONGRESS.
MORDECAI WILLIAMS,
of Boyd County.

GENERAL MILES intends to fight it out with Secretary Alger at once and be done with him. As soon as the General landed in New York he fired a broadside at the War Secretary from which the latter will not soon recover.

In spite of its howl against the Goebel law the Mt. Sterling Gazette feels constrained to say:

We are free to admit that the Election Commissioners have given Montgomery County the best list of election officers we have ever had. If they will continue on this line, we can ask nothing better.

The people who are howling so much about the election law will have to quiet down when they see its good effects.

The highway robbery of the people by the school book trust has begun with the opening of the schools. The Legislature could protect the people against these extortioners if they would.—Flemingsburg Times Democrat.

The book trusts are getting in their nefarious work right here in Maysville. The change in the books and the increased cost of the new ones will result in keeping some of the poor children out of the schools unless the city furnishes them books.

RUSSELL A. ALGER, now Secretary of War, in the Presidential campaign of 1896, came to Columbus, O., with a cannon on his train to fire salutes and kindle enthusiasm. Standing in Park street auditorium, in a spiketail coat and white vest, he told the people "he could tell Democrats anywhere by their dirty faces, greasy clothes and uncombed hair." "This is the man," remarks the West Union Defender, "whose incompetence has now resulted in the death of hundreds of soldiers from fever, hunger and exposure in badly located camps."

"BOASTING about the condition of the treasury is premature," remarks the Enquirer. "Some of our contemporaries foolishly treat amplitude of funds in the treasury as an achievement of the economic ability of Republican legislation. There is a large fund on hand as the result of war taxes. There will be a natural and proper demand for early reductions in that line. There is small hope of the work being well done under the direction of the incompetent men under the leadership of Mr. Dingley; but what the present Congress fails to do the next Congress must take up. The Committee on Appropriations must have a care, too. The people of the country are willing to pay war taxes while the legitimate expenses of the war are still going on; but they will require economy in the civil administration of affairs. There will be only three months of the present Congress, interrupted by the holidays. Much of the legislative and economic work growing out of the war will have to be disposed of by the next Congress, and that will be chosen in the coming November. It is time for the voters to be on the alert."

Took a Tumble.

Jim Lewis, colored, got drunk last evening and started to his home east of the creek. About 6 o'clock he attempted to cross the C. and O. bridge, but didn't quite make it. He took a header down the steep embankment and badly bruised his face. Mr. James Outten happened to be near and went to his rescue. The injured man was removed to his home.

Consumption Positively Cured.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but no good relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the greatest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

THE FOURTH KENTUCKY.

The Colson Rides Ordered To Anniston.
The Second Kentucky To Be Mustered Out.

The Fourth Kentucky regiment boys had hardly got settled in their new quarters at Camp Hamilton, Lexington, before Col. Colson received orders to move to Anniston, Ala., at once.

The order came Wednesday night. The Lexington Herald says:

"The news was received with enthusiasm by members of the regiment, and they only hope that they will get away before the order is countermanded. Lexington will be loth to give up the Fourth, for it has won many friends by the gentlemanly conduct of its officers and privates."

A writer in the Herald pays the Fourth this compliment: "The Fourth regiment, which left Loudon Park for Camp Hamilton on Tuesday, carried with it the approval and good will of the people in the neighborhood of whose homes Camp Corbin was located. This is perhaps the best compliment that could be paid it. By earnest endeavor this regiment won and deserved the approval of those who were at first disposed to criticize; an accomplishment requiring no little effort and determination. Its career since coming to Lexington has been unique."

When the raw material from which one of the best drilled regiments emerged first landed at Loudon Park, the mountain men had a look and a freedom of speech and act which went against them. Coming to a city whose customs were entirely new to them, they had the misfortune to gain, in the beginning, a bad name and a reputation for lawlessness. They were not as well clothed as the men of other regiments had been. They knew nothing about military discipline. They regarded their trip somewhat in the nature of a holiday, and a holiday they made of it. That was the situation; but a marked change took place. These rough mountain men responded more fully to an appeal to their honor than others have done. They were told that the women of Lexington distrusted them, and this aroused the chivalry of heart which is innate in the mountaineer. They set to work to eliminate first impressions, and how well they succeeded in their difficult task is proven by the general verdict as to order kept at Camp Corbin, and the respect shown to visitors.

"It has been said that fewer arrests are made from the Fourth than from any regiment in the city. The men deserve great credit if this be so. They have proven themselves worthy to be made American soldiers by first conquering themselves."

"Their neat appearance in the parade Monday testified to a pride and care of their guns and uniforms, and, altogether, Col. Murray was right when he said with a shrewd twinkle in his eyes: 'I think we have surprised Lexington people.'"

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Second Kentucky regiment has been ordered from Anniston, Ala., to Lexington, Ky., to be mustered out. This news will be hailed with great delight by the soldiers of the Second, who have for some time been anxious to return home.

CALL on Ed. Alexander for accident insurance.

HARRY POYNTER, living near Petersville, Lewis County, met with a serious accident a few days ago. He was driving a pair of mules hitched to a mowing machine and was carrying a shot-gun in one hand. The machine ran over a stone and caused the gun to slip from his hand, the hammer of the gun striking something as it fell, discharging one barrel, the contents entering his left side and fracturing one rib. He in all probability would have bled to death before the arrival of a physician had not a Miss Rigdon, who is a professional nurse, happened to be near the scene of the accident and took charge of the case.

JOE WHEELER.

The Veteran Fighter Regarded as a Hero—Really Responsible for Our Victory at Santiago.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6.—The man that Washington is disposed to make a hero of is General Joe Wheeler. With a great many here who have closely read the reports from Santiago there abides the belief that the gallant cavalry leader had more to do with the victory there than any other one man. He was not in command, but there are not a few reasons for believing that at critical times he furnished the governing mind.

But Washington is not thinking of things critical when it makes a hero of General Wheeler. Washington has known him intimately for a long time. He is a fine and lovable man. He has the true military spirit.

When he met General Lee in the office of the Secretary of War a few weeks ago, he ran to him and threw both arms around his neck and patted the top of his head as though he had just found a son or brother. He took General Alger's hands in both of his extended hands and shook them for several seconds while he tried to tell everything he knew at once. Such things were common the whole time he was in Washington, and there was more made of him by individuals than any other man who has returned from Santiago. There has not been the slightest criticism of General Wheeler. He is just as popular in both houses of Congress as he is in the city of Washington.

All of this has its importance; General Wheeler has his own idea about the Cubans. He does not agree with the other military men. While in Washington recently he said that the Cuban army was being sadly and cruelly misrepresented by the American soldiers who have been in Cuba. He deprecated the fact that the impression was growing that the Cuban army was nothing more than irresponsible bands of thieving vagabonds. He said that most of the thieving from our troops was done by refugees and stragglers. Furthermore, he pointed out that the food that was taken was taken by famished men, often to relieve the sufferings of famished women and children.

"Do you call that stealing?" he said, with snapping eyes. "No, that is taking what belongs to one. It is not in the nature of human beings, no matter how civilized and honest, to starve in the presence of food."

General Wheeler is full of fire and energy when he presents the reasons why he thinks the Cuban army has been vilified. He is an ardent and vigorous champion of their rights and honor. The value of this lies in the fact that he will be in Congress when Cuban matters come up for settlement. On the floor of the House he will fight the cause of the Cuban insurgents just as valiantly as he fought the Spaniards in front of Santiago.

FOUND AT AUGUSTA.

Chief of Police Donovan received a telegram Thursday evening stating that the dead body of a white man was taken from the river at that point, or near there, during the day, and that several checks of the Diener House, this city, were found in the pockets of the deceased.

Inquiry developed the fact that Mr. Wilson Miller, of this city, had been missing several days, and from the description given in the telegram his friends and relatives concluded at once that the body found was that of Miller.

Young Mr. Joseph Diener went to Augusta this morning and fully identified the remains.

Miller was last seen in this city about two weeks ago with Marshall Ellis, of the Aberdeen neighborhood, who was run over by a towboat and drowned while on his way in a skiff to his home a short distance below Aberdeen. The supposition is that Miller left here with Ellis, and met the same sad fate. Ellis' body was found near Augusta some days ago. His skiff was discovered in the willows near Ripley, and was badly wrecked.

Miller was the second son of Capt. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, was about forty-five years of age and was a cigar-maker by trade. His wife, who was a Miss Cullen, survives him.

The remains were brought here this morning on the 10 o'clock train and the burial will probably occur this afternoon.

PAYING THE PIPER.

Some Big War Indemnities Paid the Victors By the Vanquished in the Past.

After her victory over France Germany exacted the largest sum ever taken by a victor. In money she demanded a round $1,000,000,000. What is even more surprising is the fact that this enormous sum has been paid and without apparently impairing the prosperity of the French people. In addition, Germany took Alsace and Lorraine, easily worth another $1,000,000,000, to say nothing of the humiliation inflicted by such a loss.

When Russia settled with Turkey after their last war, the government of the czar received $100,000,000 in money and carved the principalities of Roumania, Bulgaria and Serbia out of Turkish soil.

After her brief and one sided war with China Japan demanded a money indemnity that was three times what she had expended, as shown by the reports of her own officials as well as by her war loans and bond issues. In addition to this, she demanded that the Liao-Tung peninsula, a part of Manchuria, and the island of Formosa be ceded to her. As the result of negotiations there was a compromise which gave Japan $240,000,000 and Formosa. As she had expended but little over $100,000,000 it is apparent, from the monetary point of view, that she made a splendid investment in whipping China.

Turkey, as the result of her war with Greece, was enabled to pay arrearsages of interest and a portion of the principal due Russia. In his settlement with Greece the sultan received millions in money and an extension of Turkey's frontier to the southward.

It is characteristic of this country that much of her war profits have been in the nature of vital principles established. The war of the Revolution secured us a big concession of territory, but the inestimable profit of the triumph was in the establishment of a free and independent nation. In 1812 our reward was in establishing the inviolability of American ships. As a result of the Mexican war we received California, New Mexico and Arizona, yet it is a memorable and unprecedented feature of the transaction that we voluntarily paid $15,000,000 for these territories. After General Jackson had overrun Florida because of the Seminole raids we purchased her from Spain for $5,000,000.

An Effective Pill Box.

Here is a good story of the author of "The Deserted Village." Hearing of Dr. Goldsmith's great humanity, a poor woman, who believed him to be a physician, once wrote to him begging him to prescribe for her husband, who had lost his appetite and was altogether in a very sad state. The kind hearted poet immediately went to see her, and after some talk with the man found him almost overwhelmed with sickness and poverty.

"You shall hear from me in an hour," said the doctor on leaving, "and I shall send you some pills which I am sure will do you good."

Before the time was up Goldsmith's servant brought the poor woman a small box, which, on being opened, was found to contain 10 guineas, with the following directions: "To be used as necessities require. Be patient and of good heart."—Christian Work.

Scolded Him.

Daughter—You must have patience, papa. Remember, he's an actor.

Father—What's that got to do with it?

Daughter—He's fond of long engagements.—London Fun.

A Misunderstood Jest.

Lord Lytton when viceroy of India was seated one day at dinner next to a lady whose name was Birch, and who, though very good looking, was not over-intelligent. Said she to his excellency: "Are you acquainted with any of the Birches?"

"Oh, yes," replied Lord Lytton, "I knew several of them most intimately while at Eton—indeed more intimately than I cared to."

"My lord," replied the lady, "you forget the Birches are relatives of mine."

"And they cut me," said the viceroy, "but," and he smiled his wonted smile, "I have never felt more inclined to kiss the rod than I do now."

Sad to say, Mrs. Birch did not see the point and told her husband his excellency had insulted her.—Exchange.

Opals.

An exquisite gem is the opal, its beautiful creamy surface lit with red, blue and yellow rays scintillating in the light and giving it a place in the front rank of precious stones. Unfortunately the opal has a bad name, and we know the proverb about the dog with the unlucky cognomen. Superstition credits this beautiful stone with bringing misfortune to its owner, and superstition will win its way so long as the world lasts. The opal is peculiarly brittle and sometimes crumbles away without any apparent cause, therefore it has been branded "unlucky." But let those laugh who win, there are still some who value opals for their worth and beauty and who can afford to make merry at the superstitions. The opal is the type of hope.—Chicago News.

Gladstone and Moses.

A correspondent of The British Weekly tells the following story relative to Mr. Gladstone: "I was driving one autumn evening in a conveyance which in those days used to run from Lamlash to King's Cross (Island of Arran) when for any reason the late boat did not go round to Whiting bay. Sitting opposite me were two men who appeared to belong to the Paisley weaver class, and true to the traditions of that class they were busily discussing politics. Presently one of them said, with much emphasis, 'There hasna been a lawgiver equal to Mr. Gladstone since the days of Moses.' 'Moses!' retorted the other. 'Moses got the law gien tae him frae the Lord, but Mr. Gladstone maks laws oot o' his ain head!'"

Russian Liars.

Russian diplomats hold that it is no disgrace or dishonor to lie in the most unblushing manner in order to promote the interests of their country and of their sovereign. When the late czar asked once of Count Ignatieff how he came to be nicknamed "The Father of Lies" while ambassador at Constantinople, he with a low bow responded, "In the service of your majesty."

SENATOR TELLER

Denounced McKinley and Supporters as Enemies of Silver.

Colorado Springs, Sept. 9.—At the end of the sessions of the four state conventions here the chances for fusion between the Democrats, Populists and the Teller branch of the Silver Republican party, appear a little brighter.

The nomination of Simon Guggenheime by the anti-Teller faction, which seemed assured, is not at all certain. According to the agreement reached neither faction of the Silver Republicans attempted to meet in the opera house. The fusionists gathered in Durkee hall and chose Senator Teller as permanent chairman.

Mr. Teller made an address of two hours' length, in which he traced the history of the Silver Republican party and denounced President McKinley and his supporters as enemies of silver.

He spoke on some of the phases of the late war, claiming that it would not have been necessary had the president listened to the plea of congress when it asked for the recognition of Cuban belligerency.

He created great enthusiasm by a vigorous advocacy of the annexation of the Philippines.

A committee was chosen to meet with similar committees from the Democratic and Populist conventions to arrange for a fusion ticket.

After this National Chairman Charles A. Towne addressed the convention. He defended his action in deposing State Chairman Broad, who he claimed, had arranged to turn the machinery of the party in the state over to the McKinley Republicans. Other conventions also met.

To Readjust Rates.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Representations have been made to the treasury department that the Spanish treaties with Great Britain, France, Russia and other European and South American countries give preferential rates to them in the duties on steel and pig iron. These products are now sold at a very narrow margin of profit which gives the manufacturers of the United States practically no market for these products in Spanish possessions. The matter has been referred to the state department for consideration.

Uncle Sam Not In It.

Washington, Sept. 9.—During the year ended June 30 last 4,842,078 tons of goods passed through the Suez canal borne by 1,792 ships. This information is furnished by United States Vice Consul General Watts in a report to the state department. He shows that the traffic receipts from this commerce were $8,636,920. Only four American vessels passed through the canal during the year.

Fusion In Washington.

Ellensburg, Wash., Sept. 9.—The joint conference committee of three parties, Democratic, Populist and Silver Republican, whose state conventions are now in progress, resumed its session. The only conclusion yet reached is that the ticket is to be known as the People's party, and that Democrats and Silver Republicans are each to have a congressman.

To Sow Good Seed.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 9.—In view of the irritation in France, the politicians and newspapers are seeking to represent the czar's peace circular in a new light. They urge that it has been misconstrued and assert that the imperial government never contemplated the immediate convocation of a conference, being fully aware of the difficulties in the way.

Has Not Succeeded.

Paris, Sept. 9.—There is no foundation for the report circulated in the United States that Major Comte Ferdinand Walsin Esterhazy, whose alleged authorship of the bordereau in the Dreyfus case is now being considered by a special military commission of inquiry, has committed suicide.

Report Confirmed.

London, Sept. 9.—A dispatch has been received from the British minister at Peking, Sir Claude McDonald, confirming the report that Li Hung Chang has been dismissed at his request.
